Don't tie yourself in knots, tying the knot!

It may not be romantic but there are procedures and regulations you need to be aware of before you say "I do". Simply clicking on the 'Relationships' section of government website www.citizensinformation.ie which reveals everything couples need to know, from taxation to inheritance rights.

WIN! Sixth sense

A new beauty salon has opened in Dublin aimed at the six senses of sight, sound, touch, taste, smell and perception. One of the most impressive courses of treatments – and perfect for brides wanting to lose those extra inches in advance of the big day – is the Danné Body Sculpting Cellulite Treatment which blasts unsightly cellulite. The salon has a special for Confetti readers which is if you purchase a course of 6 Body Sculpting treatments worth €550 you will immediately receive a course of 6 Carter Beauty Aromatherapy Facials (which is worth €650). Simply bring a cut-out of this page from the mag, www.carterbeauty.com

Dance, dance, wherever you may be!

Photographs of Michael and Niamh Flatley were seen all over the world recently but only two people got up close and personal with the Lord and Lady of the dance. Keith and Evelyn Woodward are a husband and wife duo, much sought after for their unique photojournalistic style. While Keith captures the overall mood of the day, Evelyn records the finer details, a touch, a kiss. Together they combine to give couples a very unique and personal record of their special day.
